AVAILABILITY

Contact us anytime! We have a 24-hour emergency answering service should anything urgent come up during your adoption process.

Our Mission

All children have a right to a permanent, loving family of their own.

Our mission is to serve the birth parent and adoption community with integrity, compassion, and respect for all children and all parents. We build strong, happy adoptive families where children from all over the world are valued, loved, celebrated, and embraced.

Home Study

Every adoption begins with a home study. Alliance can complete a home study for families who live in MA, RI, CT, NY, NJ, PA, AR, FL or TX. Our home studies are completed by caring, compassionate, knowledgeable adoption professionals. We aim to make the home study process to be engaging, informative and even fun! We enjoy getting to know our families and feel honored to be a part of each family's adoption journey.

Our Services Include:

International Adoption

Alliance can complete a home study for families adopting internationally, whether you are adopting a child through one of our programs or through another agency. Alliance is Hague-accredited, follows all state and federal regulations, and collaborates with some of the best programs and resources available.

Domestic Adoption

Alliance is also an expert in domestic adoption home studies. We are ready, willing, and able to help you with your domestic adoption process if you live in one of our home study states, whether you work with our agency's domestic program or through another program.

Hosting Assessments

Alliance provides hosting assessments for families who host a child during a summer or winter break. We work with KidSave-Colombia and a number of other hosting programs throughout Europe, Asia, and Africa.

Home Safety Assessments

Alliance provides home safety assessments for custody situations, stepparent adoptions, guardianships, and for various child welfare systems. These are limited assessments for a specific situation with a known child. The intent is to assess the capacity of the home to provide a safe, nurturing home environment.

DOMESTIC ADOPTION PROCESS

Families living in one of our 9 states of licensure may apply for our domestic program. All families are considered on a case-by-case basis at home study completion.

APPLICATION

The first step in your adoption is submitting an application indicating an interest in our domestic program. Once your application is reviewed, we will send you a welcome packet with clear and simple instructions on how to take the next steps to complete your home study.

HOME STUDY

Next, you will begin your home study. Your social worker will guide you through the home study process. Upon completion of your home study and parameters checklist, it will be reviewed by the Domestic Adoption team for consideration into the program. .

MATCH

After acceptance, you will begin creating your profile which will allow expectant/ birth parents to learn more about you and your adoption journey. We will work with you to develop an individualized matching plan that fits your preferences and meets your expectations.

PLACEMENT

Next, the baby is placed in your arms. Our staff will guide you through the placement process, including complying with state regulations and ICPC, while the birth mother receives counseling and relinquishment services.

POST PLACEMENT

When you come home with your child, the social worker who completed your home study will visit with you and your child, answer any questions you have, and make sure everyone is adjusting well.

FINALIZATION

Lastly, you will be assigned a court date to finalize your adoption. The time frame and process varies from state to state. Once completed, you will receive the adoption decree, and you are then officially the child's legal parents!

»»»»»»»» Domestic Adoption ««««««««

Alliance for Children's domestic adoption program places infants born in the US with adoptive parents. Each domestic adoption is different, with some adoptive parents coming to our agency already matched, while others come to us looking for a full range of placement services.

Once your home study is complete, our staff will work with you on creating your profile, which expectant/ birth parents use to select a family. Profiles are created through an online video profile platform. These profiles allow expectant/ birth parents to view your profile online both on the platform's website and The Alliance For Children website, therefore increasing your exposure to a potential match. We will assist you in choosing appropriate content for your profile, painting a portrait of who you are and the type of life you will provide a child.

Our outreach services include targeted advertising and outreach via web and social media. Other services are related to the matching process between expectant and adoptive families, such as an in-person assessment of case viability, a review of social and medical background of birth/ expectant parent(s) and due diligence related to birth/ expectant parent circumstances.

Your social worker will talk with you about the types of adoption situations you are comfortable with as they take the time to get to know you. Our staff will support you and answer any questions you may have along the way as you wait to be matched. Once matched, our staff will guide you through the process and keep you informed of any changes or updates. Meanwhile, our domestic adoption team makes sure that all of the birth/ expectant mother's needs are being met. Together, our team makes sure that everyone is comfortable.

After the birth parents sign the consents, the last step is post placement and finalization. This process varies from state to state. Our staff is available to offer guidance and support as you begin your journey into parenthood.

INTERNATIONAL ADOPTION PROCESS

Families considering one of our international programs should speak with Alliance's Program Coordinator prior to application.

APPLICATION

The first step in your adoption is submitting an application. Once your application is reviewed, we will send you a welcome packet with clear and simple instructions on how to complete your file.

HOME STUDY

Next, you will begin your home study. If you live in one of the 9 states in which we are licensed, we can complete your home study. Otherwise, we will assist you in finding an agency in your state of residence.

USCIS

The next step is applying to U.S. Citizen and Immigration Services, which is required in order for an adopted child to be permitted to enter the U.S. We will assist you with this process.

DOSSIER

Next is collecting the documents that each country requires for an adoption. If you are using one of our programs, we will provide you with detailed instructions and authenticate your paperwork.

REFERRAL

When a match is made, we will send you any information we receive about the child. We offer our families guidance and support throughout the referral process. If you decide to move forward, you will travel to the country to complete the adoption.

POST ADOPTION

The final step is coming home with your child! The social worker who completed your home study will visit with you and your child, answer any questions you have, and make sure everyone is adjusting well.

The Chief Clinical Officer or their designee reviews all applications. An application may be flagged for further review. Final consideration will be made after a thorough review of all information.
3. Arrest/Child Welfare Record:
Having an arrest/child welfare record may or may not prohibit a person from getting an approved home study/adopting a child. Each situation will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Alliance requires a notarized copy of a court disposition and a written explanation of the incident(s), signed under penalty of perjury. Alliance requires an official copy of any/all child welfare-related records. Additional assessments and outside evaluations may be needed.
4. Medical, Mental Health, Substance Use Conditions:
Having or having had a medical, mental health or substance use issue does not necessarily prohibit a person from getting an approved home study/adopting a child. Each situation will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. A letter from a specialist, therapist, or other service provider will be needed. Additional information/assessments/consultations may also be needed.
5. Discipline:
Alliance will not place a child in a home where children currently in the home AND children to be adopted will be disciplined with physical punishment (including spanking), by restricting movement, confining a child in small or locked area, withholding food, rest, or toilet use, verbally abusing a child, and/or using any other means of discipline that is designed to humiliate, embarrass, or denigrate a child, their birth family, heritage, or ethnicity.
6. Immunizations:

Exemptions may be made on a case-by-case basis.

Prospective Adoptive Parents agree to notify Alliance if any changes occur, including but not limited to a pregnancy, birth of a child, placement of a child, changing jobs, losing a job, developing a serious illness, moving, getting arrested, marital separation, mental health change (such as a new diagnosis), status, hospitalization, marital counseling, and substance use treatment. The Agency reserves the right to withdraw services and/or approval on the basis of information received after the initial decision.
9. Duty of Disclosure:
Prospective Adoptive Parents have a duty of disclosure. They understand that they must give true and complete information to the Agency and disclose any arrest, court appearance, conviction, or other adverse criminal history, even if it has been expunged, sealed, pardoned, or the subject of any other amelioration. Furthermore, they must disclose other relevant information, such as physical, mental, emotional, child welfare, or behavioral issues. Falsifying information or failing to disclose material information will result in being turned down for adoption-related services.
10. Acknowledgement:
Prospective Adoptive Parents agree to abide by all policies of Alliance, including but not limited to the child disciplinary policy, timely submission of all documents, full, complete, and truthful disclosure of all information, participation in education and training, and conducting themselves in a courteous and respectful manner. For Home Study & Post-Placement/Post-Adoption Services; CHECK if requesting the Agency's Home Study & Post-Placement/Post-Adoption Services:

1. The Agency agrees to provide home study services prepared by a qualified professional clinician. The Prospective Adoptive Parents will receive a draft to review/approve and copy of the completed report.
 - a. All adults and all children living in the home need to be present for at least one home visit.
 - b. All household members over the age of 3-5 (depending upon state regulations) will be interviewed separately.
 - c. All children/adult children of either applicant need to know about the adoption before the home study will be approved. They may have an interview or phone call with the home study clinician, write a letter, send an email, etc. regarding the proposed adoption plans. Additional information and interviews may be requested/required on a case-by-case basis.
2. A home study must begin within 6 months of application. If it does not, Prospective Adoptive Parents must reapply and pay a new application fee. A home study must be completed within 12 months of application. If not, the Prospective Adoptive Parents will need to pay a home study renewal/update fee.
3. Home study reports expire after 12, 15, 18, or 24 months depending upon various regulations. Since most clearances and other documents expire in 12 months, Alliance's policy is to renew and update all home studies 12 months from the completion date.
4. Receiving post-placement/post-adoption services is a requirement of obtaining a home study; the Agency will not complete a home study without providing services after placement. The number of visits will be determined by agency, state, country, and/or program requirements, and the needs of the child/family. In addition, the agency requires all families to participate in at least one post-placement/post-adoption report regardless of state, federal, or program requirements.

5. Alliance will conduct a home study and the recommendation will be based upon a clinical assessment. The Prospective Adoptive Parents agree to complete parent education and training and meet with an adoption clinician. They understand that at least one meeting must take place in the home. During the home study process, Alliance will receive information from others, which is considered confidential.
6. Alliance does not guarantee that the Prospective Adoptive Parents will receive an approved home study, but pledges to conduct a fair assessment. The Prospective Adoptive Parents agree to hold Alliance, its employees, directors, volunteers, and independent contractors harmless for the outcome of the assessment, and from any other consequences that might result from the home study assessment.
7. If a home study family receives a placement through another agency or resource, they need to notify Alliance immediately. Post-Placement/post-adoption services will begin according to the schedule set forth by the program, the other agency, the country, the state of residence, and/or Alliance. Additional services may occur, based on the needs of the child, the family, changing requirements, etc. Prospective Adoptive Parents agree to pay for any additional post-placement services that are deemed necessary.

For Post-Placement/Post-Adoption Services ONLY; CHECK if requesting Home Study and Post-Placement/ Post Adoption services or Post-Placement/Post-Adoption Services ONLY:

1. The Agency will provide post-placement/post adoption services, conducted by a qualified professional clinician. These services will be completed in accordance with all applicable federal, state, intercountry, and program rules and regulations. This includes making referrals to other resources and additional services as needed. If these requirements change over time, the family agrees to follow the regulations that are in force during their adopted child's post-placement/post-adoption supervisory period. They agree to finalize/re-finalize their child's adoption as soon as allowed by law. The cost of a finalization is the responsibility of the Prospective Adoptive Parents. Alliance requires finalization in all post-placement cases (domestic and international), as well as re-finalization /recognition of a foreign adoption in all post-adoption international adoptions.
2. Failure to cooperate with post-placement or post-adoption services may result in additional fees and a decision not to recommend finalization of the adoption. In addition, this may cause immediate and irreparable harm to the Agency and its Programs. Alliance has the right to seek a court order to mandate post-placement/post-adoption services. Any legal or other fees that are incurred as a result of a failure to cooperate with these requirements will be the responsibility of the Prospective Adoptive Parents.
3. Post-Placement or Post-Adoption Difficulties
 - a. When an adoption is in crisis, Alliance staff will attempt to intervene, and provide or arrange for counseling by an individual who has the appropriate skills to assist the family;
 - b. Despite everyone's efforts, adoptive placements do not always work out. If an adoption disrupts or dissolves, the Prospective Adoptive Parents have sole financial and legal responsibility for the care of the child, or for any and all costs related to the care, transfer, and replacement of the child, including but not limited to legal fees, case management, medical costs, and foster care until an appropriate placement is located and the child has been moved. The Prospective Adoptive Parents agree to these conditions and to participate in a process that is in the best interest of the child;
 - c. If Agency Staff believe that a child is at risk, they will notify state authorities and take steps to have the child removed from the home. As soon as a child is out of harm's way, Agency Staff will notify all relevant authorities.

For AFC Domestic Adoption Program; CHECK if requesting Domestic Services:

1. Domestic Program:

Acceptance into the AFC Domestic Program is determined on a case-by-case basis at the time of home study completion. The agency accepts families into the AFC Domestic Program based on a number of factors; the Agency cannot guarantee availability for all who are interested. After completion of a home study, families will be notified if the Agency can grant acceptance; the family may choose to onboard at that time. Families who defer but want to join the program at a later date will be considered on a case-by-case basis with the understanding that this option may not be available at a later date. The Agency may terminate the agreement if the family fails to maintain a valid and approved home study.

This process, known as ICPC or the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children, may take a few days, or more than a week. Alliance will complete and file the ICPC paperwork. Alliance has no control over ICPC approvals and cannot expedite this process. Prospective Adoptive Parents agree not to contact the ICPC representative directly, as this could negatively impact their adoption process. They further agree not to transport the child out of state until after the ICPC is approved.

3. Risks in Domestic Adoption

A birth parent is under no obligation to place a child for adoption, may choose not to place at any time prior to relinquishment and may withdraw their consent at any time within the period permitted by applicable law. Any financial support provided, and any fees paid for services that have already been provided will not be refunded if a placement falls through. Birth parents or other parties may attempt to assert parental or custodial rights to a child whether or not they are legally entitled to those rights. Alliance is not responsible to provide any legal services besides those related to routine, uncontested relinquishment, and termination of parental rights in connection with the adoption. If Alliance does incur any fees, legal or otherwise, after placement and before finalization, related to a specific placement, they are the responsibility of the adoptive parents.

In addition, medical, developmental, mental health, educational, social, and/or behavioral issues related to substance use exposure in utero and/or genetic/situational mental health-related issues, or for any other cause may not surface until months or years after placement. Alliance is not responsible for any costs related to the care of a child after finalization.

□ For International Programs; CHECK if requesting International Placement Program Services:

1. Acceptance into an AFC International Program occurs at the time of home study completion. Prospective Adoptive Parents must abide by all agency/country rules, regulations, and policies, including but not limited to submitting documents in a timely way, paying fees within 30 days of receipt of an invoice, and treating all agency and program staff members in a respectful and courteous manner.

3. Prospective Adoptive Parents may not reach out to International Program Representatives, Orphanages, Consulates, Central/Governmental Authorities, and/or any other entity involved in their adoption process without the agency's knowledge, permission, and consent. This is a serious infraction of agency and international adoption protocol and will result in termination from the program.
4. When Prospective Adoptive Parents receive a referral, they have fourteen (14) days in which to decide about whether to accept or decline. The Agency urges the family to speak with a physician who is knowledgeable about international adoptions. The program coordinator is available to answer questions. If the Prospective Adoptive Parents seek additional information, the program coordinator will forward information requests to our team in the foreign country. If additional information cannot be obtained, Prospective Adoptive Parents may need to make their decision based upon less information that they would like to have.

5. Risks in International Adoption

Prospective Adoptive Parents understand the risks, uncertainties and realities associated with international adoption and have assessed their ability to handle these risks and realities. Alliance does not have control over many aspects of the adoption process and, therefore, cannot guarantee a successful outcome. The risks of pursuing an international adoption include, but are not limited to the following:

- a. Alliance will provide Prospective Adoptive Parents with all medical and social information that the agency receives. However, information concerning a child (including age) may be incomplete, inaccurate, or not current. Medical or developmental testing in some foreign countries may not be as advanced as in the United States. Medical, psychological, emotional, and developmental problems may be undetected, undiagnosed, misdiagnosed, or misstated;
- b. Time delays may result in having to extend the stay in the foreign country. Additionally, one case may process at a different pace from another; while Alliance will attempt to obtain progress reports during the wait, they may not be available or detailed;
- c. Delays or difficulties in communication with the foreign country cooperating resource may occur; Although Alliance will make every effort to minimize these issues, the possibility exists for language misinterpretation, cultural differences, and miscommunications;
- d. Changing laws and requirements (sometimes mid-process) of the U.S. government or the foreign country may delay or prevent the adoption from being completed. Alliance will stay abreast of political developments and keep Prospective Adoptive Parents advised to the best of its ability;
- e. Documents may not be approved by authorities in the foreign country, and/or paperwork requirements may change; a successful adoption of any child from abroad is ultimately the decision of the governmental and judicial officials of that country. Alliance will make diligent efforts to advise Prospective Adoptive Parents about these issues, and to advocate for them;
- f. Failure of an assignment: a child may be assigned to the Prospective Adoptive Parents and then may no longer be available for intercountry adoption for health reasons, because they are returned to their biological family, are placed in-country or for some other reason;
- g. An adoption case can be impacted by events such as war, man-made disasters, natural disasters, or health emergencies;
- h. All arrangements for travel are the sole responsibility of the Prospective Adoptive Parents. They agree to make payments directly to third parties, as applicable. They agree to travel to the foreign country on the dates provided by the Agency. The estimate of expenses that Alliance has provided to families is intended to be a guideline only. Travel to and within foreign countries involves risks of injury, death, crimes, property damage or loss, trip interruptions or cancellation, civil unrest, illness, medical emergencies, or other potential problems that could involve economic losses, pain and suffering, or other injuries or damage. The Prospective Adoptive Parents agree to hold Alliance harmless for the cost of all travel expenses incurred for any reason whatsoever and for any difficulties they have while traveling abroad. Alliance hereby disclaims liability to the Prospective Adoptive Parents for any and all travel and issues while traveling.

6. Prospective Adoptive Parents Duties Following the Adoption Process.

Prospective Adoptive Parents understand that it is a difficult decision for a country to allow its children to leave their homeland and be adopted internationally. These countries deserve our gratitude and our respect. Post-Adoption reports and photos provide clear and irrefutable evidence that adoption is a positive solution for children who lack permanent families in their home country.

Prospective Adoptive Parents agree to participate in Post-Adoption Services under the requirements of the child's country of birth:

- Bulgaria: 6, 12, 18 and 24 months after adoption
- Colombia, for children 0-7 years 11 months: 6, 12, 18, 24 months after adoption
- Colombia, for children 8 years and older: 6, 12, 18, 24, 30 and 26 months after adoption
- Hungary: 2 and 12 months after adoption

- Vietnam: 3 adoption-completed by the Agency at 1, 6, and 12 months; 4 additional self-reports completed by the Adoptive Parents

Crises/Disruptions/Dissolutions after Placement

- When an adoption is in crisis, Alliance staff will attempt to intervene, and provide or arrange for counseling by an individual who has the appropriate skills to assist the family;
- Despite everyone's efforts, adoptive placements do not always work out. If an adoption disrupts or dissolves, the Prospective Adoptive Parents have sole financial and legal responsibility for the care of the child, or for any and all costs related to the care, transfer, and replacement of the child, including but not limited to legal fees, case management, medical costs, and foster care until an appropriate placement is located and the child has been moved. The Prospective Adoptive Parents agree to these conditions and to participate in a process that is in the best interest of the child;
- If Agency Staff believe that a child is at risk, they will notify state authorities and take steps to have the child removed from the home. As soon as a child is out of harm's way, Agency Staff will notify all relevant authorities.
- If a disruption occurs after the child has arrived in the United States, the child will be returned to their country of birth ONLY IF:
 - All professionals who have been consulted on the case agree that this is the best course of action and is in the best interest of the child
 - All parties (e.g. Central Authority, Secretary, Public Domestic Authority, etc.) decided and agree that this is the best course of action and is in the best interest of the child
 - The child, if old enough and well enough to understand this decision, expresses the desire to return to their country of birth
 - The child's age, length of time in the U.S., wishes, and other pertinent factors are taken into consideration
- The Agency's Co-Executive Directors and the Program Coordinator will inform the Central Authority in the child's country of birth, in writing, of the crisis/disruption/dissolution with the placement and a new plan for the child
- The Agency's Co-Directors and/or the Director of Administration will inform the Secretary and the Accrediting Entity, in writing of the crisis/disruption/dissolution with the placement and a new plan for the child.

Prospective Adoptive Parents have the absolute discretion to request that the child referred to them is within certain parameters, subject to certain limitations. Prospective Adoptive Parents may specify the race and ethnicity of the child they would like to adopt but not the skin tone. If Prospective Adoptive Parents request that a child be “healthy,” they understand the known and unknown risks involved in adoption. Alliance cannot guarantee the health of a child, or the accuracy of medical information provided; the Agency only guarantees that the Prospective Adoptive Parents will be given any information that the agency receives. Prospective Adoptive Parents further understand that any child who resides in an institution, has had prenatal exposure to certain substances or was exposed to any type of challenge pre- or post-birth may experience certain heightened health risks and delays whose long-term impact is impossible to predict.

Governing Law/Choice of Forum.

This Agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties shall be construed, governed, and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts without reference to its conflict of laws principles. In the event of any controversy, claim or dispute between the Prospective Adoptive Parents and Alliance arising in any manner whatsoever, such controversy, claim or dispute shall be brought solely in a state or federal court located in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The Prospective Adoptive Parents hereby waive any objection and irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction and venue of said Court.

Limitation of Liability

The Prospective Adoptive Parents agree that in the event a claim or cause of action not precluded by this Agreement under no circumstances shall the liability of Alliance exceed the total of payments made to the Agency from the Prospective Adoptive Parents.

Complaints, Disputes, Conflicts:

Mandatory Binding Arbitration.

Subject to the exceptions set forth in section (c) below, any controversy, dispute or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, shall be resolved by mandatory, binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) under its Commercial Arbitration Rules, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. This means that by executing this Agreement, each party hereto is waiving its respective rights to assert or defend any dispute under the Agreement at a court hearing, and further waives the right to resolution of such dispute by a judge or by a jury trial. Arbitrator decisions are as enforceable as any court order and are subject to very limited review by a court. Each party will have an equal voice in selecting the arbitrator(s) proposed by the AAA and will split fees and costs incurred evenly. To the extent the controversy referred to the AAA for arbitration can be considered on an expedited basis and or any dispute and/or hearing can be held without an in-person hearing, (i.e., by telephone, written memoranda, or otherwise), the parties hereby consent to implement such rules. (For more information about this process, visit: <https://www.adr.org>). The only exception is for disputes that total $2500 or less. They may be heard by a Small Claims Court in Massachusetts.

Each party hereto has had a chance to discuss this provision with an attorney and has made knowing and voluntary decision to select arbitration for resolution of disputes covered by this Agreement.

Full Disclosure.

All parties acknowledge that this is a fair agreement and that it is not the result of any fraud, duress or undue influence exercised by any party upon any other or by any other person or persons upon any party.

Severability.

In the event that any provision of this Agreement should be held to be contrary to, or invalid under, the law of any country, state or other jurisdiction, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect in any way any other provision hereof, all of which shall continue, nevertheless, in full force and effect in any country, state or jurisdiction in which such provision is legal and valid.

Independent Covenants.

Each of the respective rights and obligation of the parties hereunder shall be deemed independent and may be enforced independently, irrespective of any of the other rights and obligation set forth herein.

Headings.

Headings are inserted for the convenience of the parties only and shall not be attributed with any substantive meaning for purposes of interpreting this Agreement.

Entire Understanding.

This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties, who hereby acknowledge that there have been and are no representations, warranties, covenants or understanding other than those expressly set forth herein and that the parties have not entered into this Agreement in reliance upon any provision or understanding not expressly contained herein.

Independent Legal Advice.

Prospective Adoptive Parents are invited to retain independent legal counsel both for the review of this Agreement and to advise them. The Agency's mission is to provide families for children, not children for families. Alliance must represent the best interest of the child at all times. If the Agency determines that a conflict of interest exists/arises with these goals, the Prospective Adoptive Parents understand that they have the option to consult with independent legal counsel at their own expense.

Unauthorized Changes and Edits

Any changes and/or edits to this agreement are only valid if approved and initialed by all parties (Prospective Adoptive Parents and AFC Representative.) 2. Third Party Fees: Prospective Adoptive Parents acknowledge and understand that they will be responsible for all third-party fees, including but not limited to legal fees, travel, education and training, court costs, etc. In international adoptions where Alliance is not the Primary Provider, Prospective Adoptive Parents will obtain specific details about third party fees from their Primary Provider Agency.
3. Refunds: Fees are paid prior to or at the time services are provided. Fees are non-refundable once the service has been provided. Fees are refundable or partially refundable when an unexpected outcome occurs (such as fees and costs being less than predicted, a family decides not to continue, a placement falls through, etc.) All refund requests must be made within 6 months of when agency services were last provided. Services may be placed on hold or terminated at the request of the agency, the family. Any refund requests made after 6 months will not be approved. Any unused fees are returned within 30 days. Alliance sends a refund form upon request from Prospective Adoptive Parents or upon completion of services. Prospective Adoptive Parents may initiate a refund as well. The refund request form is used to ensure that there is mutual agreement about the refund amount and to verify the address to which the refund payment should be mailed. Executive Management reviews and approves all refunds.

Prospective Adoptive Parents' Understanding and Acknowledgement and Waivers of Liability

Because adoption risks exist in the process, Alliance cannot assure a successful outcome. Prospective Adoptive Parents indemnify and hold harmless Alliance and its employees, officers, directors, attorneys, representatives, agents, consultants, and volunteers for any of the adoption-related costs incurred before, during, or after the adoption process, and release these parties from any and all actions, claims liability, attorney's fees, counterclaims, and demands whatsoever arising out of or related to an Adoption Risk. This pertains to past, present, and future costs, and includes but is not limited to costs related to the medical, mental health, social, emotional, and developmental condition of the child, undiagnosed/unknown conditions or any conditions that surface/develop later in a child's life, the family background, prior history and care and previous experiences of the child, any changes in the laws, regulations, policies, or administrative requirements, any failure of a governmental or administrative judge, and any conditions that are out of Alliance's control, such as war, terrorism, crime, acts of God, natural disasters, etc. Nothing in this document waives claims against Alliance for intentional or reckless acts or omissions or for gross negligence;

Privacy Protection

Prospective Adoptive Parents/Adoptive Parents agree that they will not print, post or cause to be printed or posted in any digital, internet or print media, including but not limited to newspapers and social networking sites such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Yelp and the like, any photos or videos of a child to be placed in their home or a child who has been placed in their home prior to the finalization of the adoption. After an adoption is finalized, the agency no longer has legal custody and Adoptive Parents are free (may share or do as they wish) to share photos and videos of their child on social media. The agency suggests using caution whenever posting photos, videos or identifying information online even after an adoption has been finalized.

Libel and Defamation

Prospective Adoptive Parents agree that they will not print, post or cause to be printed or posted in any digital, internet or print media, including but not limited to newspapers and social networking sites such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Yelp and the like, any content concerning Alliance or any of its employees, officers, directors, attorneys, representatives, agents, consultants, and volunteers, that is unlawful, libelous, defamatory, harassing, inflammatory or fraudulent or that disparages or impugns the reputation of Alliance or any of its employees, officers, directors, attorneys, representatives, agents, consultants, and volunteers. Neither party shall be liable for incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages;

1. From the time of placement, Prospective Adoptive Parents are solely responsible for the care and treatment of their child. This includes care and treatment for any conditions that are unknown and/or unknowable at the time of placement. Prospective Adoptive Parents understand that Alliance has no financial responsibility regarding the child they adopt;
2. Prospective Adoptive Parents are of sound mental and physical health, and are not taking any medications or substances that impair my/our ability to parent, and to make an informed, rational decision to adopt a child without undue influence from anyone else;
3. Prospective Adoptive Parents have the right to consult with an attorney and to have an attorney review this agreement; Prospective Adoptive Parents are signing this agreement freely and willingly, without any coercion, fraud, or duress.

Terminating this Agreement:

Alliance retains the right to terminate this Agreement if any information provided is false or misleading, if relevant information has been omitted, or if material circumstances have changed and the Agency is not notified. To the extent that Alliance has reason to believe that representation of the Prospective Adoptive

Parents does not serve the best interest of a child, Alliance retains the right to terminate this Agreement at its sole discretion. The Agency reserves the right to terminate this contractual relationship with the Prospective Adoptive Parents if, at any point in the adoption process, the Agency finds that the Prospective Adoptive Parents become disrespectful, combative, unreasonable, demanding, uncooperative, or behave in a way that calls into question the Prospective Adoptive Parents' preparedness to parent an adopted child.
